SUMMER/FALL 2018 VOL. XLIII NO. 2

Charter Oak Holds 2018 Commencement Ceremony on June 3rd – Theme was “The New Majority”

A completely full auditorium of family and friends resided over the graduating Class of 2018 as students received degrees during Charter Oak State College's 44th commencement ceremony held on Sunday, June 3rd, in Welte Auditorium at Central Connecticut State University in New Britain, CT. Over 500 students graduated with more than 200 graduates in attendance, representing 34 states and 3 countries. A live webcast of the ceremony was hosted on CharterOak.edu for graduates and families unable to attend in person.

Charter Oak President, Ed Klonoski addressed the graduates. This year's commencement speaker and Honorary Degree Recipient was Mrs. Brenda S. York, Charter Oak Alumna. The student speaker was Shelly L. Carter.

In his remarks, President Klonoski congratulated the graduates for pursuing a college education while simultaneously balancing their busy work and family responsibilities. He spoke of the changes in higher education from the historical 18 to 24 year-old, full-time population living in dorms, to nearly 50% of college students today over the age of 24, attending part-time, and managing families and jobs. He told the graduates that their accomplishments are rapidly becoming how the majority of college students now complete their degrees.

“It is no longer true that what you managed, the work you did, and the way you did that work represents something non-traditional. In fact, your story is now the mainstream story for American higher education, and states like Connecticut are committed to preparing 70% of its workforce with postsecondary credentials.”

Klonoski charged the graduates with their first post-graduation responsibility saying “Tell your story, explain why you came back to finish, detail how it made a difference to your career, and together we will re-create the college myth to include your stories and your successes.”

THE PRESIDENT'S TAKE

Welcome to the Summer/Fall issue and congratulations to our recent graduates!

We are all working hard on our Fall enrollments. First on our enrollment agenda is our Early Childhood programs. We recently elevated our two Early Childhood concentrations into an Associate's degree and Bachelor's degree respectively. And we were granted a $600,000 pool of scholarship money for Connecticut Early Childhood Education degree seekers by the state Office of Early Childhood. Our Early Childhood team has been meeting with Early Childhood Center directors across the state, and we are very encouraged by the responses we are receiving. Charter Oak has long been a leading provider of Early Childhood degrees, certificates, and even an Alternate Route to Early Childhood Certification (for CT teacher certification). We are working to corner the market and become the leading early childhood resource for the whole state.

Next, we have officially launched a Community College Tuition Match Program that offers recent community college graduates the opportunity to finish their Bachelor's degree at Charter Oak at the community college tuition level. We offered this option to our 12 Connecticut Community Colleges and all 12 schools signed up in just three weeks. We already have 20 students signed up. We think this could be a major development.

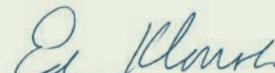

We are also preparing a new marketing campaign that guarantees transfer students to Charter Oak will never pay twice for the same course. As part of this campaign, we will also guarantee on-time graduation. We never close a course if it has enrollment, and we offer all the courses for our degrees every semester. So every student can take the course he or she needs at whatever rate is appropriate for them. So everyone finishes on time.

We have been asked by the Board of Regents to produce an RN to BSN program for Associate's prepared Nurses. The healthcare industry increasingly requires that these nurses upgrade their credential from an Associate's to a Bachelor's, and we have been asked to produce an online program that accomplishes this. We are currently moving through the approval process and beginning the course design process. We expect to launch this program in Fall 2019. To assure efficiency for working nurses, the program will be designed so that CT Community College graduates can use all of their Associate credits toward a Bachelor's degree.

Finally, a fun new approach to growing enrollment is our Alumni Ambassador program. We are asking our alums all around the country — always our best marketing resource — to talk up the college and their experiences, and to encourage friends, co-workers, and family members to consider Charter Oak. Any of those connections who apply will receive a waiver code that makes their application free. We are giving credit to alumni ambassadors who bring us new students and plan to celebrate with them as their successes mount. So share your Charter Oak story and give your friends a free application.

Consider yourself updated and enjoy the rest of the summer! Please keep your suggestions and feedback coming to eklonoski@charteroak.edu.

Bachelor of Science in General Studies with a Concentration in Public Safety Administration. She shared that her desire to stay the course when she joined the City of Hartford Fire Department at the age of 29 led her to various promotions and later to pursue her college degree. She came to Charter Oak in 2015 as a participant of the successful Go Back to Get Ahead degree completion program. Carter noted that "Engine Company 9 was where she initially learned to master her craft and earn promotions to become one of the first two female engine drivers in the City, become a Lieutenant, an Arson Investigator, Fire Code Enforcement Official, Fire Instructor, then the only African-American female instructor at the state level, and now a graduate of Charter Oak State College!" She congratulated her class on staying the course while finishing papers late at night or on the sidelines of their children's sporting events and finished by quoting Malcom X who said "Education is our passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to the people who prepare for it today."

The commencement speaker and Honorary Doctorate recipient was Mrs. Brenda S. York, Charter Oak alumna. She spoke of her educational journey that began with attending a four year college but leaving to marry and raise a family without completing a degree. She and her husband raised 8 children who were home educated by Brenda utilizing home based curriculums, specialized tutors,

Health Information Management Program Graduates 19

As a program that was new in 2012, the Health Information Management major is now starting to see significant sized groups of graduates.

The Health Information Management (HIM) program prepares students for a career that is in high demand. HIM professionals work with electronic health records, patient information, data analysis, health care statistics, quality management of health information, and medical coding to ensure quality medical records for patients and providers. Graduates of the program are eligible to sit for the Registered Health Information Administrator credentialing exam through the American Health Information Management Association. 🌱 and private lessons to enhance their education. When her oldest child was 28 they discovered Charter Oak State College and challenged her to complete a college degree before marrying. Since that time, 6 of her other children have completed degrees at Charter Oak, her youngest is planning a 2019 graduation and Brenda herself completed her degree in 2017. She thanked the College and "those innovative thinkers and courageous educators who chose to 'think outside the box' in the first place and instituted the Charter Oak concept in order to see more individuals succeed in their goal of obtaining a college degree." In closing, she urged the graduates to "begin today to show our appreciation for what we have received by using our schooling and our skills to make a difference for good, in our families, in our communities, and our world."

Dr. Shirley Adams, Provost of Charter Oak State College shared some interesting facts about the Class of 2018, including that 69% were women; graduates ranged in age from 17 to 65+, with the average age being 38; graduates hailed from 34 states and 3 countries with 69% from Connecticut; 10% earned honors; 8 graduated with a Master's degree, 415 graduated with a Bachelor's degree, more than 60 graduated with an Associate's degree; a third of graduates used multiple methods to earn college credit as noted during the Doris G. Cassidy awards; and a number of graduates are already attending graduate school.

Awards for Outstanding Academic Performance were presented to Amelia M. Saunders of Andover, CT and Kathy M. Alves of Bristol, CT. 🌱

Congratulations to the Class of 2018!

2018 Shea Lecture and Spring Dinner

The Shea Lecture has been a Charter Oak State College tradition for over 30 years. It is named after Dr. Bernard Shea, the first President of the College. The Shea Endowment was established in 1987 upon his retirement. The fund enables the College to sponsor public lectures which further the College's mission to engage students and the community in lifelong learning. The Charter Oak Foundation Financial Development Committee worked tirelessly to coordinate a distinguished panel of guest speakers, a topic of importance and interest, while also providing a unique educational setting. The conclusion of this dedicated hard work was, success!

The 2018 Shea Lecture was held Tuesday, May 1st at the New Britain Museum of American Art, New Britain, Connecticut. The "Art of Wellness Panel" discussion provided an opportunity to learn from community experts as they shared wisdom and insight on the social determinants of overall well-being.

Supporting Educational Wellness, the Foundation is very appreciative of our sponsors: Dave Calibey of BIG Think and Joyce and Mario Petrella of Calculus of Talent.

Maureen McIntyre, Andy Lee, and Andrea Mullin

Nancy Billias

The panel included:

Maureen McIntyre, CEO, North Central Area Agency on Aging (NCAAA). Maureen opened the evening welcoming guests and providing an overview of the social determinants of well-being, pulling from her 25 years of experience in the health care industry. She expanded on the economic and social implications on overall health and well-being, giving insight into recognizing the key indicators and improvements.

Andy Lee, Chief Mindfulness Officer, Aetna, provided a hands/minds-on exercise introducing the art of mindfulness. Defining mindfulness as "paying attention to your present moment experience with an attitude of openness and curiosity," Andy gave insight into corporate and personal mindfulness practices and benefits. He provided the audience helpful approaches to common day stressors, with helpful and encouraging strategies and explanations for improved overall mindfulness and wellness.

Nancy Billias, Ph.D., Professor, University of Saint Joseph, and Core Consulting Faculty, Charter Oak State College, gave us a glimpse into an emotional and spiritual well-being exercise that can best be described as the art of silence. As a lifelong practitioner of contemplative prayer with extensive education and experience, she knows firsthand the value of meditation in her own life, and in the lives of her clients and students. Professor Billias shared practical and not so natural ways of dealing with silence and improving awareness. Nancy challenged the attendees to pause and consider the well-being of the impatient driver attempting to break through our consciousness with their horn!

Andrea Mullin, Client Manager, United Healthcare and WIT Program Graduate. Andrea shared her personal testimony on Educational Wellness; how she empowered the Art of Continuous Learning to improve her overall economic and emotional well-being. As a single mother, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Charter Oak State College while working full time. She continued on with passion and fortitude on an educational journey and has not stopped learning. Her personal story was an inspiration to those in attendance, solidifying the impact of our Women in Transition (WIT) Program.

As an added bonus, immediately following the lecture, our very own Alum and New Britain Museum of American Art Docent, Pat Hickox provided tours of the museum including a view of the special Prendergast exhibition.

Charter Oak State College – Spring Dinner!

The evening also featured the Foundation Spring Dinner and included members from the Alumni Association, Foundation, Board, faculty, staff, and students.

President Klonoski provided a brief update of the Foundation efforts for 2018. He described the Boards' decision to increase the scholarship award amounts to meet the rising costs of tuition; and thanked our dedicated volunteer board, constituents, alumni, faculty, and staff of Charter Oak. As Klonoski recognized the need to increase our scholarship fund, which would in-turn increase the scholarship award amount, he touted Charter Oak as a viable option for adult students.

He also honored Marcia Anderson-Esson, a very dedicated Alumni Association and Foundation Board member, by thanking her for her contributions and presenting her with the very first Alumni Ambassador Pin and Certificate. Klonoski explained that Marcia has made significant contributions to Charter Oak in her volunteer efforts on both boards, however, more importantly “she has served as an ambassador to Charter Oak, whether knowingly or not.” Marcia exemplifies the pay-it-forward mantra in her everyday comings and goings. Most notably, in her constant commitment to the message and work of Charter Oak, she often recommends the college to others.

Marcia’s story began years ago, she was an RN trained in the hospitals of England and recruited here to the U.S. by Yale New Haven Hospital. She lived in New Haven and attended Gateway Community College. She saw an invitation to meet at the local library to learn more about Charter Oak State College and was intrigued. She attended the meeting and decided it was time to complete her Bachelor’s degree at Charter Oak. Marcia is a Charter Oak traditional student that compiled work, previous credits, and used CLEP and other testing to aggregate her credits. She received 45 credits for being a nurse, registered for courses, and successfully passed CLEP exams to complete her degree in 1993.

The Shea Lecture provided an opportunity to learn to live a life of wellness by successfully navigating our mindful and silent moments and appreciating the growth and value in continuous learning. The Spring Dinner provided a glimpse into the lives of our adult students and the successful contribution of our Foundation and Board, helping to change lives!

The Charter Oak Foundation Board extends appreciation to all the participants, speakers, and sponsors.

Charter Oak State College Foundation Donor Appreciation!

Thank you to all the generous donors who contributed to the Charter Oak State College Foundation during the time period of July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018 (Fiscal Year 2018).

As we reached out to our alumni, board, family, friends, and fans of Charter Oak, we asked, "Would you be one to give to the gift of education, a gift that lasts a lifetime?" Many answered the call and the 2018 Annual Appeal surpassed the goal of $15,000!

A big THANK YOU to those who took the time and made a contribution.

Please know that your donations are used to support the Foundation's work in changing lives of adult students by providing financial assistance towards degree completion. A college degree opens up opportunity and improves economic status for families and generations to follow... life changing!

As Barbara Nye, a donor who graduated from Charter Oak at the age of 62 in 1995, exclaims "I felt wonderful at finishing a journey started in 1952! Thanks for continuing to bring dreams to fruition."

Tammy, a 2018 Scholarship Recipient, describes her gratitude to Charter Oak for the programming and the Foundation for the funding. "I feel privileged to be part of the Health Information Field and its ever-advancing technology in the new millennium. For some time, I searched for a program where I could utilize the credits I earned from nursing school prior to my illness and bone marrow transplant. This degree will allow me to be a part of the health care field, but in a less physically demanding capacity. Also, this award will assist me in several ways, helping to satisfy the payment for the course and helping me to purchase the required text books. I express my sincere gratitude!"

Loyalty in Giving reflects 5 consistent years of giving. We thank you, our generous constituents, for recognizing the ongoing need and choosing to continue to make a difference.

Remembering Delores Bell

A colleague, mentor, and friend to many.

April 17, 1967 – June 24, 2018

A debt of gratitude is due to Delores Bell, for her passion, dedication, and commitment. We pause to honor her memory and reflect on her legacy. Delores passed peacefully in June 2018.

Delores Bell was the Coordinator for Special Programs, which included the Women in Transition (WIT) Program, at Charter Oak State College for over 14 years. In this position, she provided support and assistance to women towards degree completion. She was a mentor, advocate, and cheerleader, ensuring the women of WIT had the necessary support and tools needed to successfully complete their degrees.

In her professional work, Delores worked tirelessly for and with women to encourage education and degree completion as a way out of poverty and into self-sufficiency. As of May 2018, the WIT program served 208 women, with 121 women earning 146 degrees (92 Bachelor Degrees, 54 Associate Degrees). In June of 2018 another 7 WIT women graduated from Charter Oak State College.

As one woman from the WIT program expressed her condolences, she described the mentoring phone calls she received from Delores as very motivating, and explained that she would "brace herself" as Delores did not accept excuses. Her encouragement was drawn from the belief that "failure was not an option," Delores empowered women to stay focused and keep pressing forward with the goal of degree completion on the horizon.

Delores' favorite quote was by Maya Angelou – "A wise woman wishes to be no one's enemy; a wise woman refuses to be anyone's victim."

On a personal note, Delores Bell was born and raised in Hartford, Connecticut, the youngest of 10 children and is a first generation college graduate. Delores recounted her early years, describing that she was determined to not become part of a negative statistic, she showed early signs of leadership and looked for opportunity to excel. In high school she was selected and attended Laurel Girls State – a week-long government education program which prepared young ladies for careers in government through citizenship and democracy. In addition, through a gifted and talented program at her high school, Delores was selected to attend the Center for Creative Youth at Wesleyan University, a 4-week residential arts program focusing on theater.

Through her exposure to such opportunities, which developed a sense of confidence, and her parent's determination to provide her with every opportunity to succeed in life, Delores worked diligently to obtain her Bachelor of Science Degree from Adelphi University in Political Science. Delores quickly discovered that she could be "more impactful as a counselor assisting people in living emotional, healthy, and stable lives." Delores went on to earn her Master's Degree in Community Counseling with a focus on Pastoral Care from the University of Saint Joseph and became a licensed Professional Counselor for the State of Connecticut.

In her spare time, Delores served at her local church as a youth leader, and spent time with her family and friends. She was a brave woman determined to not let cancer cripple love, shatter hope, or destroy her faith.

Delores was an amazing woman who lived by her convictions. Her legacy as a leader and social advocate for women will live forever. We will miss her. 🌱
