

Subject Area Concentrations

Listed in this section of the catalog are the available subject area concentrations, including course requirements and student outcomes. Since Charter Oak State College students can meet these requirements in a variety of ways, the requirements and outcomes are based on the outcomes from similar programs of study at other regionally accredited institutions and approved by the Core faculty.